DARING ROBBERY AT RED OAK.

Thieves Hold Up a Jeweler and Secure Several Hundred Dollars.

RED OAK, Ia., Feb. 11.—This city was aroused about 7 o'clock by several shots, fired in rapid succession. A crowd immediately collected in front of L. H. Towner's jewelry store, where the proprietor tried to explain to them that he had been robbed. His store is located just off the public square. He was sitting by the stove reading when two men came in. One had a mask on his face. The masked man presented a revolver, and demanded that Towner throw up his hands. He complied with the request. His revolver was on the safe, within a few feet of his hands, and he made a slight move as if to get it, but was told to keep still or he would have his head blown off.

While the masked robber was holding Towner in this position his comrade stepped behind the counter and proceeded to help himself to the extent of about $250.

The robbery was the work of tramps. They passed several trays of gold watches and took eight or 10 silverware watches, some chains and a lot of rings. They backed out of the store and ran down the alley. Towner ran out and fired his revolver and gave the alarm. The thieves escaped.

STOCK CITY CATTLEMAN MISSING.

STOCK CITY, Feb. 11.—James Storey, an old cattle speculator of this city, went to Omaha Tuesday with five cars of cattle belonging to local commission. He sold the cattle there, and received proceeds, about $2,600 in money, with which he said he intended to buy cattle at Salix, Ia. Since then Storey has not been heard from. His friends do not believe he has advanced, but fear he has met with foul play.

Cramer Case on Trial.

ALBIA, Ia., Feb. 11.—The Cramer attempted murder case was taken on a change of venue from Albia to Centerville. About 40 witnesses were taken from Albia to testify in the case. The defendant is a son of George P. Cramer, who runs a hotel in Albia, and the case is being bitterly contested. Young Cramer is charged with attempting to kill Nigam Watson Fordyce the evening of last Fourth of July.

Judge Joseph M. Casey Dead.

FORT MADISON, Ia., Feb. 11.—Joseph M. Casey, judge of the First judicial district of Iowa for the last eight years, having been re-elected for a third term last fall, died at his home in this city at the age of 63 years. A Kentuckian by birth he has been a resident of Iowa since 11 years of age. He was a Democrat in politics and had served in both houses of the state legislature.

MARTIN GETS THE PLUM

Named by the President to Be Postmaster at Omaha.

NATIONAL CAPITAL NOTES.

President Sends a Message on the Bering Sea Question to the Senate—Proceedings in Congress—Pacific Railroad Settlement Proposition.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—The president sent the following nominations to the senate: Postmasters—Enclid Martin, at Omaha, Neb.; John C. Curtin, Helena, Mont.; J. C. Bremerman, Boone, Ia.; James A. Jackson, Howard, Kan.; August Klein, West Point, Neb.; Arthur L. Morse, Atkinson, Neb.; Asa F. Hollebaugh, Falls City, Neb.

Enclid Martin was born at Moundsville, W. Va., in 1847, and moved to Monok, Ill., in 1861, where he secured his early education and completed his studies in the higher schools of Illinois. At the expiration of his school years it was in Monok that he determined on beginning his business career. Imbued from birth with the energy of the "old Dominion," and further incited by the spirit of western progress, the natural abilities of the man here found room for their development. Unaided and alone he made a place for himself and soon was in possession of the best business in the county. He was also elected representative from Monok and served his constituency with distinction for one term in the Illinois legislature. After being identified with the interest of western progress, the natural abilities of the man here found room for their development. Unaided and alone he made a place for himself and soon was in possession of the best business in the county. He was also elected representative from Monok and served his constituency with distinction for one term in the Illinois legislature.
